

HEIGHT: 173cm
HAIR: black
EYES: brown

BACKGROUND

Kelvin Ta is an emerging actor of Chinese-Cambodian descent. He has taken on roles that challenge him and represent Asian characters in a three-dimensional light. These characters range from an animated Cambodian elephant to a 21-year-old gay Chinese student losing his virginity. His passion is film and he is currently developing a screenplay and gaining experience in the film industry.

YEAR	PRODUCTION	ROLE	COMPANY/VENUE	DIRECTOR
TELEVISION
2021	TALES OF NAI NAI	Bora	TVNZ	Becky Kuek
2019	I AM	Teenage Mitchell	TVNZ	Rajneel Singh
SHORT FILM
2021	FIRSTS	Steven/ Cheung	NZ Film Commission	Jesse Ung
2019	OLD BOYS	John	University of Auckland	Connor Slattery
2018	MAJESTY	Son	Elam School of Fine Arts	Pon Thortienchai
THEATRE
2021	PORK AND POLL TAXES	Kam Loi	Hand Pulled Collective & Proudly Asian Theatre	Talia Pua
WEB SERIES
2019	LIFE IS EASY	Skuxx	Us People Productions/TVNZ On Demand	Amanda Tito & Christopher Stratton

TRAINING

- 2019 - Acting and vocal training with Juliet Furness
- 2019 - Acting training with Kacie Stetson and Dawn Glover
- 2019 to 2020 - Actors Lab with Peter Feeney & Lisa Chappell
- 2020 - Advanced Screen Workshop with Liz Mullane & Rachel Bullock
- 2020- Miranda Harcourt Workshop
- 2020 - Standard American Accent Workshop with Jacque Drew
- 2020 to 2021 - Fresh Crop Emerging Actors Course with Pan Asian Screen Collective & Proudly Asian Theatre
- 2021 - Beginners Chinese Language Course

RELEVANT SKILLS

SPORTS: Boxing (basic), Running
 LANGUAGES: Teochew (beginner)